

Lottie Jordan Glover Thomas

March 20, 1940 - September 22, 2025

Lottie Jordan Glover Thomas was born March 20, 1940, in Hanover, VA. She was the seventh of nine children born to Andrew Jordan and Nancy P. Richardson. She peacefully transitioned to her heavenly home on Monday, September 22, 2025.

Lottie, affectionately known as Sis, was educated in the Hanover and Henrico County Public School Systems. She was a 1959 graduate of Virginia Randolph High School. Lottie accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of Rock Hill Baptist Church in Hanover until she joined St. John Baptist Church in Richmond, VA. At St. John, she served in the Usher, Silver Saints, Good Samaritans, and Women's Ministries. In 1960, she married Prince Glover, Jr. Their union was blessed with two sons, Anthony and Andrew. Later in life, she married Roscoe "Billy" Thomas.

Lottie was a hard-working, dedicated, and devoted mother to her sons. She worked a variety of jobs for different businesses while raising her sons. Her final career choice was that of a machine operator at Philip Morris, where she worked until she retired. In her spare time, she enjoyed shopping, gardening, bowling, and road trips to Maryland. She loved spending time with her family and friends. She also enjoyed watching sports – baseball, basketball, and football, especially her team, the Dallas Cowboys.

Lottie was preceded in death by her parents, Andrew and Nancy; her siblings, Jeanette Moran, Ellen Goffney, Joyce Ann Williamson, Adele, Beatrice, Andrew, Earl, and William Jordan; and her husband, Billy Thomas. She leaves to cherish her memories her devoted sons, Rev. Anthony (Deatrice) and Andrew; grandchildren, Shamara Coleman, Andrea, and Adrian Glover; great-grandchildren, Michael-Michale, Ava, August, and Arius Glover; and a host of devoted nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
