“ I send my sincere and warm condolences to the Jacksons. Losing a loved one in death is so hard to come to grips with, because we can hardly face the reality that they are no longer here to share life with us anymore. This pain was definitely not God's purpose for us when he created us from the beginning. Adam's disobedience brought this tragedy upon us, but Jesus's obedience will bring us out of this sadness. 1st Cor 15:22 makes this promise: "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." John 5:28,29 promises that one day all in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." As you look forward to the day of salvation, may your precious memories of Lou help you to go on.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Daddy, You will truly be missed. You loved us so much and for this we are grateful. The love you showed for your grandchildren words can not express. Michael Jr. and Imani Jean will always love you Pop-Pop. You have instilled in us that family and love are essential and we honor you by continually with your legacy for the next generation. With God's help and time we will make it through, but deep in our hearts you will never be forgotten. We love you Daddy and with God's grace, mercy, and love, we will see you on the other side.##imported-begin##Michael Sr., Pam, Michael Jr. ,& Imani##imported-end##

“ In my opinion, Jean was one of the kindest and most sincere of all God's creatures. God said you best know someone by the fruits they bear, therefore his family is a testament to my opinion of his character.###imported-begin###Tonie Quick###imported-end##
