“ Louella Feaster

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I extend my deepest condolences to the family of Louella Feaster. May you find comfort from the God of all comfort who helps us cope with our grief. It can be so hard to face each day without our loved one; but, the love and support of family and friends can help ease your pain and sorrow. The Bible promises at Revelation 21:4 - "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be any more. The former things have passed away." I know that you look forward to seeing Mrs. Feaster again in the coming paradise, here on earth, under peaceful and righteous conditions. (Psalms 37: 9, 10, 11, 29)

“ To my family, I am truly sorry for our lost! Grandma is not doubt in heaven with granddaddy and looking down on us all with joy and happiness. I am so happy to have had such a wonderful woman in my life for love, nurture, support, and wisdom! I hope hope that u all grieve with each other and adapt a spirit like Momma a free will of love and forgiveness, never forget her best quality, she said what she meant and made no apologies for saying it, I to share that strong Feaster trait. Let the truth be told and it will set u free! Be well and live long!

Myron,

I am in shock to have heard the passing of your mom. You have lost a beautiful and caring person. No one knows this more than you. I remember when you said, "Pat, I am going to take mom a chicken box for lunch, I will be back later." Myron, words can't mend your heartache, but God can heal your heartache, so give it all to him and he will give up strenght in this difficult time. My heart and prayers are with you.
