

Louellen Wiley

April 18, 1940 - February 8, 2007

Life Reflections "...The time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." II Timothy 4:6-7

Louellen Wiley, a phenomenal woman and the eleventh child born on April 18, 1940 to the late David and Ethel Williams, quietly took her place with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Thursday, February 8, 2007. Louellen affectionately known as "Ella," received her primary education in Littleton, North Carolina. Shortly after she moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she continued her education in the Baltimore City public schools. Louellen had numerous jobs, but landed a job at Franklin Square Hospital where she devoted over thirty years of service and retired in 1998. In 1970 Louellen was united in matrimony to Thomas Jackson Wiley. Sophistication, class and style were Louellen's signature. She was always known for her love of jewelry, skirts – right above the knee, and her fancy hair-styles. Many who knew Louellen would describe her as an outspoken, but giving person. Louellen's hobbies were traveling, making crab cakes and devil eggs, interior decorating, dancing, sleeping, spending time with family and friends, and living life to the fullest. She leaves to cherish her memory: loving husband, Thomas Wiley; son, Guy Michael Johnson; two step-sons, Thomas Wiley Jr. and Jonathan Wiley; two daughters-in-law, Sharon Johnson and Tandy Wiley; three grandchildren, Louellen, Jonathan Jr. and Isiah; two great grandchildren, Kaia and Da'Qwan; two sisters, Ethel Henderson and Catherine Wyman; brother, Isiah Williams; four sisters-in-law, Beulah Mae Williams, Helen Battle, Mortelia Buckson and Lila Mae Espie; two brothers-in-law, Roosevelt Henderson and Horace Benjamin; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept our condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares- "there is going to be a resurrection." That will mean a return to life for our dead loved ones, with the prospect of no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (See Revelation 21:3-5, Luke 23:43 and Matthew 5:5) It is our sincere desire that you will receive much comfort and strength from these loving promises found in the Holy Bible in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon & Joe Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
