

LouGene O. Williams

November 26, 1936 - July 8, 2002

Lougene O. Williams, Sr., retired Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor for the State of Maryland, died Monday, on July 8, 2002 at Northwest Regional Hospital. Lougene grew up in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and graduated from Oliver High School. He moved to Baltimore in 1958 and attended Morgan State where he earned a bachelor's degree. He went on to Coppin State and earned his master's degree. In 1959 he married Sallie Robinson. That marriage ended in divorce. From this union one son, Lougene O. Williams Jr., and one daughter, Karen Boyd, were born. He was a member of Bethel A. M. E. Church, and a member of the Masonic organization as Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. In addition to his son and daughter, he leaves to mourn: six sisters, Lula Stevenson, Dee Lois Williams, Esther Teasley, Fannie Fuller, Donna Teasley and Dora Teasley all of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; five grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends
