

Louida Mallory

October 7, 1940 - April 25, 2015

On October 7, 1940 the sun rose on Louida Kearney affectionately known as (Boot), Louida departed this life on April 25, 2015 after a lengthy illness.

She was the oldest of seven children born to the late Charles and Helen Kearney. Three of her siblings Shirley M. Seward, Mildred E. Turner and Mary Julie Shelton preceded her in death.

Louida was formally educated in Baltimore City Public School System; she was a graduate of the Baltimore School of the Bible. She was employed at Misty Harbor as a seamstress until her retirement, she also worked as a child care and assisted living provider for many years.

Louida accepted Jesus Christ as Her Lord and Savior as a young woman under the leadership of the late Pastor James Nelson of Linwood Baptist Church. After the departure of Pastor Nelson, Louida continued serving the Lord under the leadership of the late Lorenzo Mallory. Under his leadership the church name was changed to First Mount Carmel Christian Community Church. After the passing of Rev. Mallory, Pastor Edward R. McCurkin became the pastor of the church where Louida filled every capacity of service within her church, including church secretary until her passing.

Louida was married to the late Thomas Mallory who preceded her in death.

She was also preceded in death by two brothers-in-law Preston Shields and Harry Kellam.

Louida leaves to cherish her memory a special friend Willie Hardy Sr., three sons, John Hughes, Tony Hughes, Efrem Seward and one daughter Sheila Bryson, three sisters, Margaret Kellam, Jessie Shields, Martha Shelton, three brothers-in-law, Earnest Turner, Melvin Shelton, Gregory Shelton and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, family and friends.
