“ To the family of Mr. Bond: I'm sorry to hear about your loss. It is comforting to know that the Bible speaks of a time when "...death will be no more..." at Revelation 21:4. Jehovah also promises the time when "...all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." at John 5:28-29. For these promises to be fulfilled we have to patiently wait.##imported-begin##Treynel Winston##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to you and your family. Please take comfort in the fact that Almighty God, Jehovah promises to give you the strength you need to endure. He says at 1 Peter 5:6,7 that we should "Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God...because he cares for you." May this scripture help to comfort you during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Sandy Sloane##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
