Louis affectionately called “Buddy” by family and friends, married Lachelle Scott on November 4, 1985. A stepson Eric and their son Louis Austin were born of this union.

Louis, was employed at the Baltimore County Detention Center for ten years. He then decided to follow his passion and started his own auto repair business which he operated until he could no longer due to his illness.

Buddy was a diehard Ravens fan, he enjoyed playing pool, going on bus trips and sharing his knowledge of cars with his family and friends.

Preceding Louis in death was his brother Maurice and his father Louis Victorious.

Louis leaves to mourn: his devoted wife, Lachelle; his loving mother, Blanche; his son, Louis Austin; stepson, Eric Scott (Tammy); three step-grandchildren; and mother-in-law, Gloria Scott all of Baltimore, Maryland; three aunts, Joyce Handy of Jackson, Mississippi (Joseph), Sheila Hunter of Baltimore, Maryland and Lillie Mae Taylor (Edward) of Powhatan, Virginia; uncle, Thomas (Florence) of Amelia, Virginia; and a host of other family and friends.

God looked around His Garden and found an empty place,
He then looked down upon His earth and saw your loving face.
He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest,
His Garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering, He knew you were in pain,
And knew that you would never, get well on earth again.
He saw your path was difficult, He closed you tired eyes,
He whispered to you "Peace be Thine" and gave you wings to fly.
It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you on the day God called you home.
Lovingly submitted,
Mom, Louis & Chelle

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.
