“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 ) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ Louisa and I met in the 10th grade at Northwestern High School. It was three of us who were always together, Louisa, me and Roslyn. We immediately became friends and we all were into wearing makeup everyday. We continued to see each other at High School reunions. I learned a lot from Louisa she was a fine lady, a good friend and she will truly be missed. May the Lord grant peace and blessings to the family as they go through this period of lost and remember Louisa will always live in our hearts now and forever more. God bless you and keep you, in the name of Jesus the Christ.##imported-begin##Michelle C. Woodson##imported-end##

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. No family should have to go through such terrible pain, and one day soon we will see a time when sickness and death will be no more. Isaiah 33:24, Rev 21: 3-5. May Jehovah, the God of tender mercies give you the comfort and strength that you need to go on. One day he promises through his Son Christ Jesus, to restore life back to those who have died. As John 5:28,29 promises, "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May your precious memories of your loved one give you comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
