

Louise Ann Custis

February 26, 1923 - February 23, 2004

Louise Anne Ayres Custis was born in Bellehaven, Virginia on February 26, 1923 to James and Bessie Ayres. She was the fifth of twelve children. At St. Agnes Hospital, she was called to eternal rest in the evening hours of February 23, 2004. Louise, affectionately known as "Weezie," was educated in the public schools of North Hampton County, Virginia. After graduation, she worked for a short time and then married her childhood sweetheart, Lawrence Henry Custis. This beautiful union of fifty-eight years produced four children; Wayne (who preceded her death), Bernadette, Andrea and Yvette. After God first, Louise made her family and home the focal point of her life. She was a devoted wife and an affectionate mother who emphasized Christian living, family unity and education. Louise was very clear about her priorities; she involved herself in church and was active on committees at her children's schools. Many who knew Louise would describe her as a humble, calm and giving person. Louise's hobbies were traveling, interior decorating and attending social Affairs with her husband. In addition to taking care of her own family, Louise's love for children inspired her to open her home to embrace other people's children. For many years, she ran a daycare in her home where she cared for children of all ages. Because of her impeccable reputation for treating them as her very own, there were instances where Louise ended up caring for three generations of the same family. Louise is remembered today as being a virtuous, well-read, well-traveled lady who was dedicated to enriching the lives of others. She leaves to mourn: her children, Bernadette

Michele Hamilton of Baltimore, Maryland, Andrea Custis of Great Falls, Virginia and Yvette Custis-Jones of Randallstown, Maryland; two sisters and one brother, Colleen Robinson of Exmore, Virginia, George Ayres and Christine Carter of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; a daughter-in-law and two sons-in-law; six grandchildren, DeNae, Tommy, Michele, Mikhal, Nahketah and Rachel; numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Louise Ann Custis The loss of a loved one by death is a trial which causes many to give serious thought about their future. Please be encouraged to know that 1 Corinthians 15:26 in the Holy Bible states." The last enemy death is to be brought to nothing." Yes this promise of God will do away with death and all the pain it causes. It is my sincere hope that this verse will warm your heart. “ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
