

Louise C. Bailey

July 26, 1939 - February 13, 2013

Louise Cecelia Bailey, daughter of the late Charles and Thelma Webster, was born on July 26, 1931. She departed this life on February 13, 2013 after a long and brave battle against illness and dementia. She received her education at Frederick Douglass High School and the Community College of Baltimore City. Louise, affectionately known as Weezie, retired from the Baltimore City Public School System after forty years of dedicated service. While in the school system, she assisted in setting up the first pre-k Head Start Program.

She married John T. Bailey, Jr. and out of this sixty-four year union five children were born: Francine Parker, Deborah Edmonds, Carole Bailey and Denise Bailey. She was predeceased in death by her only son, the late John T. Bailey, III.

Ask anyone who knew her and they will tell you that Louise was the sweetest woman in the world. She had a wonderful sense of humor that helped her surge through life's adversities. She loved to make clothes and curtains, and she was also a great cook. She was an avid gardener and always had the prettiest flowers in the neighborhood. Louise got great joy from the pleased expressions of family members after eating one of her delicious holiday meals topped off with her award winning pineapple upside down cake. Louise was a patient and loving wife, and the most caring and devoted mother any child could wish for. One of her favorite expressions was, "Give me flowers while I'm alive so I can enjoy them”.

Louise leaves to mourn: her husband, John T. Bailey, Jr.; four daughters, Francine Parker, Deborah Edmonds, Carole Bailey and Denise Bailey; one son-in law, David Parker; one brother, Charles Webster, Jr.; one sister, Doris Talbert; one brother-in-law, Ellsworth Talbert; three granddaughters, Sarrina Kearney, Maya Maroto and Mariah Bailey; three grandsons, Gregory Kearney, II, Lawrence Bryant, III and Anthony Raymond; thirteen great-grandchildren; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am sorry about the passing of your love one. May the family find comfort and support in the Holy Scriptures knowing Jehovah God is aware of our distress during this time of grief. Isaiah 66:13... God loves us and He knows the pain that death causes those left behind and He promised to soon put an end to death forever Isaiah 25:8. May God continue to bless your family.....Please accept My sincere condolences
