

Louise Marie Elizabeth Smith Brooks-Vaughan

March 16, 1942 - April 15, 2023

Louise Marie Elizabeth Smith Brooks-Vaughan, formerly of Richmond, was born in Henrico County, Virginia on March 16, 1942 from the union of Leander September Smith, Sr. and Edna Mae Fields Smith.

Louise attended Richmond City Public Schools and received a Paralegal certification from Old Dominion University.

Louise had an eye for design and had an eclectic flare which could be seen in every corner of her home. If she wasn't organizing something inside she could always be found outside planting something or moving it. Family was important to her and she would memorialize every event with a disposable camera and got extra prints to share. She cherished her lifelong friends and looked forward to their annual get togethers.

She leaves to cherish her memory a daughter, Pamela Brooks; two grandchildren, Desmond Burruss, (Jessica) and Alexandra Burruss; 5 great-grandchildren, Cameron Burruss, Mia Burruss, Aaliyah Burruss, Giana Burruss, and Davion Coleman; devoted brother, Howie Smith, Sr.; sister, Deborah Jefferson (Robert); and a host of nieces, nephews and friends, among them one devoted, Pat Lewis.

The family would like to thank the Crater Community Hospice and The Wayland Home for the care and comfort given to Louise.
