“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. The death of a loved one is truly heartbreaking to the family, and is so hard to come to terms with. God promises that he will soon rid the world of this enemy death that brings us so much sadness. 1st Cor 15:26. There are truly wonderful things in store for those who love and obey God, because he promises a peaceful new world where sickness and death will be no more. Notice this comforting scripture at Rev 21,4, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." Another wonderful promises is found at John 5:28,29 which lets us know that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus"s) voice and come out. Yes the dead will come out of the graves to life in peace and happiness. 2nd Peter 3:13. May the love of Jehovah God and his son, Jesus Christ continue to be with you to see you through.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, Please accept my deepest sympathy. At times we all wish a change to come about to stop sickness and death. Well, Almighty God Jehovah promise that change. At Isaiah 33:24 it says, "No resident will say: I am sick." And at John 5:28,29 it says, "All those in the memorial tombs will...come out." These are just a few of the problems we face today that Jehovah will eradicate. Please find a measure of comfort from these scriptures.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your loved one. At a time like this it can seem very hard to find comfort, but we can be comforted in a way that only our Creator would be able to do. For he is "the God of all comfort." And his word tells us that he "will comfort us in all of our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) At a time of such sorrow and mourning God's word gives a reason for hope. At Revelation the 21st chapter, verse 4 it says: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things will have passed away." Just think, every feeling of sorrow and pain due to the sting of death you may feel now, will be gone and will never return. What a heartwarming prospect to draw comfort from; I hope that you are able to do so.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##
