

Louise Rawlings Burwell

October 4, 1931 - June 24, 2012

On Sunday, June 24, 2012, God chose to call home his beloved daughter, Louise Rawlings Burwell. Louise was preceded in death by her loving husband, Alfred Burwell and parents, Annie M. And Thomas M. Rawlings.

She was born on October 4, 1931 in Brunswick County, Virginia to the late Thomas and Annie Rawlings. Louise joined Popular Mt. Baptist Church at an early age. She attended the Brunswick County Public Schools System and proudly received her GED in later years.

Leaving home at the age of 22, to settle in the state of New York, where she met and married her husband, Alfred Burwell. She was employed by the American Greeting Card Company and would later retired from the United States Postal Service. She and Alfred together joined Union Baptist Church while living in Mount Vernon, New York. After retiring the couple moved to Richmond, Virginia and together joined St. James Baptist Church and Varina.

Louise had a gentle, easy, laid back and caring spirit. She was kind to everyone and lived life to the fullest. The smile she always greeted you with was radiant. Louise was a friend that you could depend on; her big heart would give you her all.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory, three sisters, Virginia Beasley, Elva

Carroll, very devoted Daphney Avens; one brother Calvin Rawlings (Willie B.); one stepdaughter Beverly Robinson (Cliff); three step-grandchildren; to devoted nieces Cathy and Stacy Roberts; two devoted aides, Ayana Thompson and Saadatu Yusif and a host of other relatives and friends.
