

Louise Byrd

August 17, 1935 - August 30, 2002

Louise Byrd (nee Johnson), daughter of the late Wilbur and Ada Johnson, was born August 17, 1935 in Westmoreland County, Virginia. She peacefully departed this life on August 30, 2002. At an early age, Louise was baptized at Zion Baptist Church in Tucker Hill, Virginia, under the pastorate of Rev. W. Taylor. Years later, she joined Whitestone Baptist Church, under the pastorate of Rev. William Thompson. "Lou", as she was affectionately called, was educated in the Virginia School System. In her early twenties, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland, and worked for Baltimore City Public Schools. Louise met and married the late Eugene Byrd and was a devoted wife, mother, and homemaker. From this union, three loving children were born and raised: Carolyn Loretta, Ada Lisa, and Eugene Raycole. Louise had a great love for her family and they traveled often. She loved to cook, entertain, and talk on the phone. Louise leaves to cherish her memories, two daughters, Carolyn Odunze and Ada Evans; one son, Eugene R. Byrd; one sister, Mary Clark; one brother, William Johnson (one brother preceded her in death, Junior Grant Johnson); two sons-in-law, Mac Odunze and Hugh Evans, Jr.; two grandsons, William Johnson and LaMar Evans; two great granddaughters, Jacqueline Johnson and Christina Johnson; two adopted great grandchildren, Raeqwon Purnell and Sharae Brown; a host of other relatives nieces, nephews and cousins; a family friend, Veronica Seeras; and devoted friends, Juanita Robinson Everleen Moye' and Reather Powell
