

Louise Clemons

June 7, 1912 - March 11, 2002

“Dear Father, I earnestly commit my life to You. I put myself completely into Your loving hands with faith and without fear.”-----Norman Vincent Peale
Louise Burrell Clemons, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Burrell, was born in Burgess, Virginia on June 7, 1912. She departed this life on Monday, March 11, 2002 after a lengthy illness. As a child she joined the Shiloh Baptist Church in Northumberland County, Virginia where she was baptized. She attended the public schools there and left Virginia as a young adult to reside in Baltimore, Maryland. Her husband, the late Nathan Clemons, preceded her in death. Louise will be remembered for her wisdom, her love for family, her caring spirit, and her wonderful wit. For fifty years she was dedicated employee for several prominent families in Baltimore City and Baltimore County. She, along with her niece Mary Gaines, assisted the families in maintaining their households and rearing their children. Not only was she dedicated to her employers, Louise showed her devotion to and love for her family by caring for her mother until her death and helping to raise her younger brother William and his twin sister Addie. In her spare time, she could often be found cooking or reading. To her family, she leaves precious memories. Her survivors include a devoted brother, William J. Stepter, Sr.; a sister-in-law, Frances G. Stepter; and aunt, Gladys Holly; nieces, Mary Wildly, Denise Wildy, Twilah Stepter Shipley and her husband David Shipley, Michelle Stepter Davis and her husband Minister Kevin Davis; nephews, William J. Stepter, Jr. of Pennsylvania and his wife Tina Page Stepter, Tyrone E. Stepter

“ Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
