

Louise Coley

May 5, 1927 - January 9, 2015

It is no secret what god can do. Very quietly and peacefully on January 9,2015, God granted an unspoken desire for Louise Coley to move to heaven. Her assingment on the side of Jordan is now complete.

Louise Harrs Coley, daughter of the late William Henry and Dorothy Harris, was born on May 5, 1927 in Littleton North Carolina. She received her education at McIver High school. Louise accepted Jesus christ at an early age in Littleton North Carolina . She later became a member of the Ray Of Hope Baptist Church in Baltimore Maryland.

Louise and her brothers the late William and Howard Harris lost their mother at an early age. Their grandmother Rose Price and their Uncle and Aunt Moses and Addie Price raised them with their nine cousins children.They were so grateful to them.

Louise later met and married the late Lue Henry Coley. The love story of Louise and Lue Henry started in Littleton North Carolina.They united Holy matrimony on June 19,1947. From their union of 40 years came two children, daughter Shirley Coley and son Milton Coley.

Louise retired from Johns Hopkins Hospital after 32 years of service. Louise received the Baker King award for outstanding service at Hopkins.

Louise was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and an excellent great-grandmother. She had a very warm, caring loving and giving spirit.

Left to cherish her memories are her daughters Shirley Coley Washington; son Milton Coley; son-in-law ,Calvin Washington; daughter-in-law Deborah Coley; two granddaughters Raquel Jefferson and Techa Sedwick; two grandson in laws Steed Jefferson and Larry Sedgwick Jr.; five great grandchildren Steed Jr. And Tyler Jefferson and Justin, Keiera and Aiden Sedwick; one cousin Annie Mae Daniels and a host of neices, nephews, cousins, other family and friends who will miss her dearly.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to The Coley Family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He assures us that " death will be brought to nothing". Other scriptures even show us that our dear loved ones will be resurrected right back here on a beautifully restored paradise earth. Our prayers are with your family.
