

Louise Fields

November 16, 1934 - September 18, 2003

LOUISE FIELDS was born on November 16, 1934 in Robeson County, North Carolina to the late Jerry and Fannie May Colvin Fields. She was one of the thirteen children born in this union. Louise, as she was affectionately known to family and friends, was educated in Robeson County High School in North Carolina. Louise was a special person with tender love for her family. She worked in a children's hospital for fifteen years. She also worked at Severna Park Middle School until she retired. She joined First St. Stephens Baptist Church in the year of 1991. She loved all of her members and loved her pastor and first lady. In June, Louise became very ill. She was then no longer able to attend church services. On Thursday, September 18, 2003 at 11:22 p.m., the Lord welcomed her home. She leaves to mourn: five sisters, Berlene Williams of Baltimore, Carrain Hollaway of Philadelphia, PA, Mary Williams of Baltimore, Dorothy Mae Robertson of New Jersey, and Shirley Little of Baltimore five brothers, Rubert Colvin of North Carolina, William Jerry Fields, Ottis Fields, James Fields and Charles Fields all of Baltimore; four sisters-in-law, Perlene Colvin of North Carolina, Joyce Fields, Carleta Fields and Carol Fields of Baltimore; two brothers-in-law, Mancy Thompson and Eddie Hollaway; a devoted friend, Lee Edward Blue; one goddaughter, Jessie Kirk and a special godson, Jasper Mitchell; and a multitude of nieces and nephews as well as other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor out cry or pain anymore. He say's death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he say's, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family of Louise Fields: I am so sorrow that you lost your loved one. But, please allow me to share some comforting words from the Bible that have comforted me during my time of deep sorrow. At Isaiah 33:24, the Bible speaks of a time when no resident will say: "I am sick." What an exciting promise. Also, Isaiah 25:8 says, "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." I hope you find comfort from these words as I have. Please accept my condolence.##imported-begin##Ruth Thomas##imported-end##

“ Sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Our family finds much comfort in the Bible. One such comforting passage is Hosea 13:14- "From the hand of Sheol I shall redeem them; from death I shall recover them. Where are your stings, O Death? Where is your destructiveness, O Sheol?" Here God promises to destroy death and "redeem", bring our love ones back to life. That promise will take place soon. We hope you find comfort as we have in this promise.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
