

Louise Fields

March 6, 1917 - June 10, 2004

Louise Coleman Fields beloved daughter of the late James and Irene Coleman was born March 6, 1917 in Matthew's County Virginia. On June 10, 2004, after a lengthy illness, God sent a loving angel to bring Louise home to be with her heavenly father. Louise was educated in the Matthew's County School System. Realizing the importance of Christ in her life, she joined the Emmanus Baptist Church in Virginia. After coming to Baltimore, she joined St. Paul Baptist Church. In the early 1960's Louise changed her membership to Mount Hope Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Andrew D. Nance. She served as president of the Gospel Chorus and Sanctuary Choir for many years. Louise also sang and traveled with the family group, "The Virginia Soul Stirrers." She was a faithful and dedicated member until her failing health prevented her from attending church. While she was unable to attend, she enjoyed the religious services on the radio and television. After graduating as a beautician from Apex Beauty School, she enjoyed glamorizing and socializing with her patrons and friends. She also worked many years as a cook for the Offit and Cohn families. To Louise, life was a blessing from God; and she loved and enjoyed it to the fullest. Louise married Coleman G. Fields in 1935 and they had one son, John R. Fields. Her husband, son and brothers preceded her in death: Randolph, Eugene, Thomas, Christopher, Joseph; and three sisters, Ada, Virginia and Mary (Mae Henry). Her grandchildren and great grandchildren were very special to her. Louise faithfully filled their physical and emotional needs while showing love and understanding. She loved to cook, especially around Christmas time when the house was filled with the aroma of chocolate chip cookies. Her motto was "Don't let grass grow under your feet." She was known to some as "Grandma," to others as "Ma," and some even called her "Weisey." She will be greatly missed by all that knew her. She leaves to cherish her memory two loving grandchildren, Tracey Madden and John Fields; daughter-in-law, Rosetta Fields; one sister, Fannie Bailey of Baltimore, Maryland; one brother, William (Neal) Coleman of Maine; five great-grandchildren, Dante, Jamal, John III, (J.C.) Davon and Sierra; five step-grandchildren, Rosie, Michael, Herman, Morris and Karen; and a host of great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives, friends and a very devoted family friend, Janice Gaskins.

“ Dear Family, please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of such a wonderful person. Though a stranger, her obituary told of a person who was very special. She sounds like the kind of person I would have loved being around. I can just imagine the wisdom she had and shared. Truly she was a jewel. In addition, she loved God. That's commendable in itself. The bible offers comfort and one scripture that has helped me is at Isaiah 26:19 which promises, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust. How comforting it is to know that we WILL see our loved ones here on earth again soon. May her legacy continue to bring you joy and comfort as well as the bible.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ To God be All the Glory for All of the wonderful things he has done!! It is my prayer that you will hold to Gods unchanging hands. The Bible says that earth has no sorrow that heaven can not heal. I know that time will come for you to heal, all you have to do is trust in the Lord with all of your heart... “ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
