

Louise F Flemming

December 19, 1919 - August 8, 2010

Louise Walker Fuller Flemming was born on December 12th, 1919 to Carrie Ann Walker in Brookneal Campbell County Virginia .Louise's childhood was hard. She lived with her maternal grandmother Emma Walker for most of her adolescence. Her mother, Carrie Ann, moved to Baltimore to find work and at the age 12 she had Louise come and live with her. However even with just the two of them life was a continuing struggle.

When Louise turned 19 she married her first husband Buster Tero Fuller and had 3 children: Ronald, Venise and Kirk. After years of discord Louise separated fro Buster and was left to make a life for herself and her children alone with no assistance.

By the early 1950's she met her 2nd husband Dudley Flemming who was a merchant marine and made Louise's children his own. During this time Lousie with the help of Dudley became a business women and opened a local restaurants in New York. By the time the 1960's came about Louise had created a family complete with children, children in-law and grand children. Soon after her 2nd husband was diagnosed with Cancer and they moved to Barbados where she where she lived until he was called home in 1990.

Louise decided that it was time for her to live closer to her children and in 1991 she returned to Baltimore where she lived the rest of her days amongst family and friends until the morning of August 8th 2010 when her life force was requested by the almighty.

Louise Flemming leaves behind two sons Ronald and Kirk, along with four grandchildren: Miles Boyd, Andrea Fuller, Hassan Fuller, and Melanie Dorsey; six great grandchildren: Lakrysta, Jontay, Keishonanna, Brie, Anaya, Taylor and a great great granddaughter O'kolla, and a hos of close family and friends.
