“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. The loss of one we love causes much sorrow and grief; however, there is a remedy to this condition of death. It is the resurrection promised by "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort us in all our tribulation" 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. Job 14:14,15 lets us know that God has a "yearning" an earnest longing and desire to resurrect the dead. May you find comfort from these promises in God's word the Bible as we await the fulfillment of this wonderful provision.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly tells us: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere condolences to the family. To lose a loved one is the hardest thing any family ever has to endure, and it is so painful. At such times we need much comfort, and a hope to cling to. That hope is found in the bible, because God tells us of the wonderful hope for the dead, which is the resurrection. At John 11:25 Jesus made this wonderful promise: "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So your loved one will one day wake up from the sleep of death to life everlasting. may you find much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope of the resurrection.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
