

Louise Jackson

July 25, 1924 - February 3, 2014

LOUISE JACKSON, known to most as LuLu, was born on July 25, 1924 in Selma, North Carolina to the late Henry and Charity Howard Stevens. She was called to rest on February 3, 2014.

LuLu attended North Carolina public schools. She later moved to Baltimore, where she was employed by Dover Poultry Company for many years. All that knew her knew she loved to cook and entertain family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her six brothers, three sisters and two grandsons.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Junius L. Bradley and Clifton M. Howard (Valerie); a devoted nephew and her caregiver, Jimmy Stowe, twenty-two grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, five great-great-grandchildren and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and devoted friends.

She was loved by all and will be truly missed.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible gives a real hope of being reunited with your loved ones who have passed away. Acts 24:14 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength from the resurrection hope.

“ To the family,
I am deeply sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. Death can be hard to cope with but fortunately we can draw comfort from the scriptures. One particular scripture is found at Isaiah 25:8, which says in part, "He (God) will swallow up death forever." One day soon, God will not only get rid of death, but He will also resurrect our dead loved ones. May this promise bring you comfort and peace during this time of need.

“ My deepest condolences to the family. Losing a dear loved one can leave a very empty space in one's life. Please find strength, hope, and comfort in "the God of all comfort " (2 Cor. 1:3,4)

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible give us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.

“ Sorry for your loss, but Jesus has promise all those in the grave will hear his voice and come out John 5:28. What a joy it will be to see your loved one again.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

linn & family - February 04, 2014 at 09:07 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
