

Louise Kellam

June 30, 1911 - March 29, 2009

Louise Kellam (affectionately called Lady K), the daughter of the late William and Minnie Galloway, was born in Rockingham County, North Carolina on June 30, 1911; where she received her formal education and high school diploma. She was the oldest of seven children. Louise smiling gently crossed over on March 29, 2009. Louise was united in holy matrimony to the late Thomas S. Kellam. From this union, they were blessed with four children. She loved to cook for the family. Louise was a walking history book by sharing a wealth of knowledge that she lived and learned. She was known to call all of her children and their descendents each morning as a wake-up call. She will truly be missed by all. She accepted Christ as her personal Savior and was baptized joining the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church receiving an early spiritual training in North Carolina. Louise loved her church and did what she was asked and expected to do. She was a faithful member of the Courtesy Guild since 1944. Louise was a member of the Magnificent Ladies Social Club, the historian of the Courtesy Guild, and an honorary member of the Courtesy Guild until her departure. Louise made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend, a devoted mother and grandmother. Louise was employed at Sanitary Laundry for many years until she became employed at Neild's Dry Cleaners as a spotter from which she retired in 1978. She also did domestic work ironing for families until her health prevented her from continuing. She leaves to cherish her memory; two daughters, Shirley Roberts and Lillian Stinnett; one son, Charles Kellam (son Willie G. Kellam preceded her in death) twenty-seven grandchildren, forty great-grandchildren and thirty-two great-great-grandchildren; one sister, Annie Galloway (sister Geneva Taylor and three brothers, Jesse Galloway, Robert Galloway and Charles H. Galloway preceded her in death.) a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and a devoted friend, Louise Pringle.

“ Our sincere sympathy goes out to Peggy Kellum and family. I know how much you loved and cherished Miss Louise. It doesn't matter how long our love one has been with us, we don't want to see them leave. But she has "walked worthy of the calling which she was called." She is now complete. Remember God said:"He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live. Look forward to the time when we all get together.##imported-begin##Terry and Marion Carter##imported-end##
