

Louise Mildred Lilly

June 11, 1932 - November 10, 2016

Louise Mildred Lilly was born June 11, 1932 in Newport News, Virginia to the late Herman and Thelma Goodwin. She departed this life on November 10, 2016 after a lengthy illness.

Louise received her education in Newport News, Virginia. On August 19, 1949 she married the love of her life Fred Lilly, Jr. and together they moved to Baltimore, Maryland. From their union eleven children were born.

Louise built strong friendships with fellow classmates at St. Joseph Medical Nursing School and BelAir Convalescent Center where she was employed until her retirement. She was affectionately known as “Mama”, “Lou” and “Ms. Louise” to those who lived and/or entered her home. Everyone was family. Her country style cooking attracted many to sit at her table frequently. Along with her specialty meals, there was always a pot of butter peppered rice whether breakfast, lunch or dinner. All the grandchildren and great-grandchildren were introduced to coffee with breakfast and Pepsi soda anytime of the day at the appropriate age during her bonding moments with them.

Mama would rise early with her radio on for a message and down home gospel songs to praise God all by herself. Her favorite artist is Shirley Caesar. Even in her last hours, she moved her head to “God is God” by Regina Bell. She will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew and loved her.

Louise’s husband Fred Lilly and four sons, Donald, Ronald, James and Maverick preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her sweet memories: five sons, George, Jerome,

Thurman, Calvin, Darrell; two daughters, Brenda (Anthony Hodges), Laverne; twenty grandchildren; a host great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
