

Louise E. Lipscomb

May 22, 1954 - June 24, 2011

LOUISE ESTER JAMES LIPSCOMB, sometimes known as Lou Ester or Lou, was the daughter of the late Daniel Davis and Annie Canty Davis . She was born on May 22, 1954 in Bishopville, South Carolina. She was terminally ill for quite sometime and entered into eternal rest on June 24, 2011.

Louise received some of her education in South Carolina, although most of it was in Baltimore City Public School System. Louise worked for twenty years in the Linen Industries as a machine operator as well as caring for foster children and as an Autopsy Assistant.

Louise accepted Christ as she matured into womanhood. She became a loyal Usher and member of the Good Tidings Baptist Church of Baltimore, MD.

Louise was first married to Samuel James and is now married to Leonard Lipscomb, whom she leaves to mourn.

She was the mother of the late Larry Lee Owens, and leaves to cherish her memory: daughter, Sonya Biedenback; son, Dominic Kennedy son-in-law, John Biedenback grandson, Mathew Lipscomb who was raised as a son. Along with her sisters Sarah Davis, Arlene Davis, Shirley Young and Tammy Riley; brothers, Danny Davis and Dan Davis; brothers-in-law, Darryl Young and George Evans; and a special bond shared with her niece, Jasmine Baker; and a host of nieces , nephews,, cousins, aunts, and many friends.

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 2yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again! Any Jehovah's Witnesses that you meet would love to show you in the Bible the truth about death! Again so sorry for your loss!!
