“ To the family of Mrs Hall, please accept my heartfelt sympathy. Death is truly painful to the family and friends, and so very hard to come to terms with. We never want to see our loved ones depart from our lives, and Jehovah God never purposed such sorrow for us to have to endure. One day he promises all sickness and death will be a thing of the past. Isaiah 33:24 lets us know at that time that no resident will say, "I am sick." Also Isaiah 25:8 promises that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and certainly wiipe the tears from all faces." During that future time the dead will be ressurected back to life. John 5:25-29 tells us that the hour is coming when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who have given heed will live." "For just as the father has life in hemself, so he has granted also to the Son to have life in himself." "And he has given him authority to do judging, because Son of Man he is." "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a ressurection of life." May the God of all comfort comfort you, and give you the strength to go on.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###

“ I'd like to express my deepest sympathy to Ms. Hall's family and friends. The loss of a dear loved one is very painful and difficult to bear; that's why the Bible calls death an enemy. However, God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes at 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. I hope this message from the Bible comforts your hearts.###imported-begin###V. “ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##
