

Louise E. Oliver

December 24, 1946 - May 23, 2018

Louise Elizabeth Oliver, was born on December 24, 1946 to the late Samuel Lloyd, Sr. and Henrietta Lloyd in Baltimore, Maryland. Her entrance into this world on such a Holy day gave apparition into the beautiful angel we would all come to adore.

Louise was educated thru the Baltimore City Public School System. She graduated from Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School in 1963. She continued her education in Health Care as she became a Certified Nursing Assistant. The irresistible love and passion to care for others remained steadfast until her retirement from the Church Home Square Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland.

Louise was the 2nd oldest of five children and amongst her siblings she was often the peace maker and made her presence known. She was always very independent and caring. She was always very shielding of her siblings. Their love and reverence for one another remains as strong today.

When Louise entered a room, she attracted your attention with her stunning shades and style. She had a very contagious, electric personality which made her presence known. Her intellect and wit will surely be missed by all who knew and loved her.

Louise was a sweet, charismatic, clever women and her lovely spirit attracted the attention of Mitchell Oliver in 1970. They would later commit their love to one another in marriage in 1971. Thru their union two children were born: Mitchell Oliver II and Monyette Oliver.

Louise loved her children and she was very protective of her loved ones and maintained a private life. She instilled wisdom, dignity, and respect in her children. She wanted them to grow and flourish in Baltimore City where far too many youths become victims to a corrupt urban plight. Mitchell and Monyette have made her proud as they have grown to be productive, caring adults who give back their time and resources to their community whenever possible.

Louise was overjoyed with the birth of her first- born granddaughter, Mia Oliver, who she has raised as her very own. The love and admiration they had for each other is astonishing. Louise loved the strong woman Mia had become and Mia becoming a wife and mother herself just intensified her respect and regard. The bond Louise and Mia shared will not be broken with her passing it is transformed into something deeper.

Louise shares a special bond with her lively energetic teenage granddaughter Sierra who reminds her of herself during her youthful years. It also made her heart smile to be blessed to spend time with her two great bouncy granddaughters Alison and Vashti. Their bright smiles and sparkling personalities will keep her spirit alive.

Although she battled a complicated lengthy illness due to breast cancer, Louise displayed such vigor until she departed this earth surrounded by her love ones. The family ask in honor of Louise that you wear the pink ribbon provided to continue to promote awareness to this devastating disease.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Mitchell Oliver II; daughter, Monyette Oliver; two granddaughters, Mia Oliver-Ekundayo and Sierra Oliver, two great granddaughters, Allyson and Vashti Ekundayo; one grandson, Olusola “Paul” Ekundayo; three siblings, Michael Lloyd, Samuel Lloyd, Jr, and Patricia Jennings; she also had a devoted companion, Gregory “Mickey” Durant; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
