

Louise Rebecca Whiting

October 4, 1919 - April 25, 2003

Louise Rebecca Whiting, affectionately known as “Weise” to some and “Granny” to others, was the daughter of Edna and Joseph Smith. She was born on October 4, 1919 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Carver Vocational High School. She also attended the Community College of Baltimore. She later met Leonard Whiting. They got married and from this union they had eight children. She enjoyed shopping and cooking for holidays, especially her Christmas cookies and taking care of her home. She had four brothers and four sisters. After a lengthy illness, the angels came to call her home. Left to cherish her memory are: her eight children, fifteen grandchildren, thirteen great-grandchildren twenty-seven great great grandchildren, a host of other relatives and friends. Little did we know when it dawned that morning the sorrow the day would bring, Death came to claim our loved one, We felt its painful sting; The end was sudden, the shock severe To part with one we loved so dear, God gives us strength to face her loss And courage to bear the blow For what it meant to lose you, Mom No one but God could know. From You Loving Children

Tribute Wall

“ Louise Rebecca Whiting

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Louise Rebecca Whiting

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM