

Louise Stancil

January 1, 1927 - December 7, 2007

On January 1, 1927, in Stanford North Carolina, Walter and Rosie Smith were blessed with their only daughter, Louise. Growing up in the town of Ayden North Carolina, Louise traveled the road of life armed with a solid foundation. At an early age, she accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior. She was a member of Zion Chapel Freewill Baptist Church and baptized by Reverend J.P. Lawson, Pastor. After graduating from South Ayden High School in 1945, she moved to Baltimore Maryland. In Baltimore, Louise met and married Lacy Stancil. Together, they raised three daughters, Ernestine, Elaine and Deborah. While she only had three daughters, she became the "Mother" to many. Her home was always opened to the children in the community, feeding them and sharing her wisdom. She was equally generous to all of her family and friends, lending a helping hand whenever needed. She loved to cook and prepared memorable meals for many. Louise worked at Johns Hopkins Hospital until she retired after 37 years of service. She was outgoing and very active in the Coldstream Homestead Montebello community. She served as Vice President of the Coldstream Seniors. She retained her love for cooking, baking cakes, pies, and special dishes. Traveling and making ceramic figurines became her most enjoyable hobbies. And the jewels of her life were her four grandchildren and five great grandchildren. After fighting a long term illness, Louise departed this life on Friday, December 7, 2007, at Mercy Hospital. She leaves to cherish her memory, two daughters, Elaine Murrill and Deborah Royster; three grandchildren, Lacy Murrill and his wife Tammy, Darlene Murrill, and Rhonda

Royster; five great grandchildren, Gerald Murrill, Rashid Hines, Zhane "Tina" Hines,, Lacy "Lay Lay" Murrill Jr. and Lorrena "Rena" Leverett; James Sturdivant whom she calls her son-in-law; as well as a host of other relatives and friends. "Mama, thank you for your everlasting and unconditional love."Submitted with love,The Family

Tribute Wall

“ Louise Stancil

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Momma , I miss you so much 😞 . I know you're proud of me for everything I am accomplishing in life 🙌🙌 I love you 😘😘😘 continue watching over us . . R.I.P my angel 🙏🙏

- Tina , great granddaughter 😊

Tina - January 23, 2015 at 11:13 PM

“ I offer my sincere condolences to the family of Louise. May the God of all comfort continue to be with you during this time. 2nd Cor 1:3,4. Although we can no longer share life with our loved ones when they die, know that they are asleep in Jehovah"s memory, and one day his son Jesus will awaken them from sleep to peaceful and happy conditions. John 5:26-29. Soon there will be no more sickness, sorrow of any kind, and no more dying, and God will wipe out every tear from our eyes. Rev 21:4. May you have peace and strength from our heavenly father, and may your cherished memories of Louise help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you take comfort in knowing that very soon our loving heavenly father Jehovah will do away with our enemy death forever!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.###imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM