February 2, 1922 - September 30, 2008

Absent from the body and present with the Lord With her loved ones at her bedside, Louise Wyatt Gillis was peacefully called home to be with the Lord on September 30, 2008 at 11am. Our beloved was born Louise Norfleet on February 22, 1922, daughter of the late Dissie Wyatt and Ephraim Wyatt. Louise spent her early childhood years in Emporia, Va., where she attended Greenville County Training School. After graduating from High School, she moved to Richmond, Va. to attend Virginia Union University. She was briefly married and from that union two daughters were born. After moving back to Emporia, she met Arthur Gillis and during a brief courtship they moved to Brooklyn, New York and married in 1949. From this union four children were born, two sons and two daughters. Louise discovered she possessed a natural passion for teaching children. She held positions as a teacher's aide in Brooklyn, New York for many years. In 1983, Louise and Arthur moved to Richmond, Virginia. Louise was truly a cheerful giver. She loved to share whatever she had. Louise received the Lord Jesus Christ at an early age in Emporia, Va. and was baptized at St. Johns COGIC under Pastor Bates. She continued her faith and service for many years when she attended Fresh Anointed Ministries under the leadership of Pastor Larry C. Miles, before transferring her church membership to Faith Landmark Ministries, where she was active as a greeter for several years until her health began to decline. She was preceded in death by her parents, and her daughter, Janis Perrineau. She leaves to cherish her memory a loving husband, Arthur Gillis; three

“ May you be comforted by the wonderful hope of the resurrection as you remember your loved one with fond memories. One day, God promises, we will see them again, and they will no longer be suffering. What a wonderful hope the resurrection is, and by obeying our loving heavenly father, and exercising faith in the ransom sacrifice of his son, Jesus, we will be able to see them again. John 3:16.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
