Lo'Vaughn Arness Jones, son of Mable Acree-Jones and Thomas Acree, was born September 7, 1971 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this world on Sunday, December 28, 2003. Arnett also called Smiley by his family and friends was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools and worked different jobs throughout Baltimore. Arnett had a good sense of humor, love in his heart and a bright smile for everyone. He was gifted, very creative and talented. He possessed a hidden ability with his hands to repair and restore broken things and he loved playing basketball. Considered a special child by his mother Arnett no matter what his situation or circumstances were, would always express his love through the giving of gifts, a kiss, a hug or other acts of kindness. Arnett was very appreciative of the moral values imparted into him by his deceased grandfather Charles Mobley, whom he adored and who was very instrumental in his life. Arnett leaves to celebrate his life: a loving and caring mother, Mable Acree-Jones; father, Thomas Acree, one brother, Aurice Jones Sr.; one sister, Tranica Acree-Stokes; one daughter, Nina Arnetta Jones; three nephews, Travis Acree, Eric Jones and Aurice Jones Jr.; one niece, Brittany Stokes; one grandmother, Mary Frances Jones; two aunts, Shirley Geter and Denise Rowe; two uncles, Darrell Jones and Angelo Jones; one brother-in-law, Gregory Stokes; four great aunts, two great uncles, one great grandfather and one great grandmother. His significant other Julia Mobley and a host of relatives and friends. GOD I thank you for hearing my prayers and answering my petitions by blessing me with all the years I shared with Arnett through his good times and bad times.
