

Lovelean McCoy

October 9, 1911 - August 29, 2006

LOVELEAN McCOY, daughter of the late Harrison and Phinnize Johnson, was born on October 9, 1911 in Concord, Virginia. She departed this life on August 29, 2006 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in Concord, Virginia and became a Christian and a member of the Peaceful Grove Baptist Church in Concord. She married the late Ernest Earl McCoy on Christmas Eve, 1931. Five children were born in Concord, Ernestine, Benjamin, Carroll, Edith and Robert. After moving to Baltimore in 1941, another daughter, Norma was born in 1944. Benjamin, Carroll and Norma are now deceased. In Baltimore, Lovelean joined the Memorial Baptist Church on Caroline Street. She was active on the Choir, the Willing Workers, and the Busy Bees. Later she became a member of City Temple where the late Reverend W.W. Payne was the pastor. She also served on the choir at City Temple. In 1991, her son Robert asked her to visit his church, the New Psalmist Baptist Church located at Franklin and Cathedral Streets. After hearing Rev. Walter S. Thomas, she decided to become a member and later became a member of the Missionaries at New Psalmist. Lovelean loved the Lord, her church and her family. She also enjoyed the family gatherings at her home where she would cook fantastic meals with homemade rolls, peach cobbler, various cakes and all the fixings fit for a king. You could always get a meal at Mama's house. She was a lover of flowers and always had a beautiful garden around her home. She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother and a warm and loving woman of God. Lovelean will be missed by everyone who knew her. She leaves to mourn: two daughters, Ernestine DeBerry and Edith Stinson; one son, Deacon Robert McCoy; one son-in-law, Jimmy Stinson; one daughter-in-law, Deaconess Gerri McCoy; five grandchildren, five great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's Word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful provision further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
