

Lovette Taria Williams

November 30, 1989 - July 15, 2019

Lovette T. Williams affectionally known as Putt-Putt/Hersey was born on November 30, 1989 to Wendy Terry and James Williams.

Lovette attended Hanover County Public School in Beaverdam, VA. She also attended Henderson Middle School and John Marshall High School in Richmond, VA. Lovette was to begin a new job at Capitol One the week of her demise.

She joined Union Baptist Church at an early age.

On July 15, 2019, Lovette departed this life at Johnston Willis Hospital. Lovette was a kind-hearted friendly person, loved to party and have fun. Her favorite words were "That's it"!

She was preceded in death by her grandmothers, Bernice Waller and Pearl Williams, grandfathers, Edward Waller and Henry Ward Williams, and her brother Antoine Waller.

Left to cherish her loving memories are her daughter, Sakijah Williams of Chesterfield and son Naszshaie Davis of Goochland County; mother and step-father Wendy and Travis Terry; father James Williams of West,VA; two sisters, Chrystal Wyatt of Richmond and Tyzarah Williams of Fredericksburg VA; two brothers, Nequan Freeman of Richmond and Andre Childs of Caroline

County; devoted aunt Bernice Waller of Richmond and two devoted cousins Dominique and Linwood Waller of Richmond; and a host of aunts, uncles and cousins. She loved her close friends, Shanda Bowman, Daishinae Wilson, Tonette Johnson, Monica Wyatt, Davette Johns, and Monique Ballard, and a devoted friend, Davon Lewis who meant the world to him.

Putt

This is really hard to believe
Suddenly you had to leave
None of us ever wanted to see
That you would leave our family tree
The world and more is what you meant to me
But now I know your soul is complete
Because finally with the Lord you are free!
With Much Love,
Your Mom
