

Lovey G. Jackson

November 22, 1923 - March 7, 2011

What a friend we have in Jesus...Lovey G. Jackson was born on November 22, 1917 to the late Herman A. Banks and Anna Banks in Baltimore, Maryland.

Lovey was educated through the Baltimore Public School System. She attended Dunbar Senior High School where she received her high school diploma.

Following high school, Lovey became a seamstress by trade before retiring from Misty Harbor Inc. Lovey loved to sew, crochet, knit, and take care of her many plants and flowers. She was most excited when she was traveling, visiting, and worshipping our Lord and Savior. Lovey attended both Shiloh of Edgemere, and Christian Life Church avidly on Sundays, where she was both loved and admired.

Lovey met and married Harry J. Jackson who proceeded her in death, and from their union she leaves to mourn six children; Daniel W. Banks; Juanita I. Brice; Charlotte M. Lyons; Larry K. Jackson; Tara Barrett; Teresa Jackson, and one son who proceeded her in death; Harry J. Jackson J.. She also leaves to mourn nineteen grandchildren; Veronica, Theresa, Phyllis, Daniel Jr., Patrica, Laura, Karen, Curtis Jr., Wanda, Darlene, Raymond Jr., Candace, Harry III, Donte', Antonio, April, Tiffany, Tyrin, and Monique, Lovey, twenty five great-grandchildren, and seven great-great grandchildren. She also leaves to mourn a host of other relatives, including nieces and nephews and an abundant amount of friends. She was preceded in death by six siblings; William, Julius, James, Arthur, Dorothy, and Bernice.

Lovey enjoyed celebrating with her family, talking, and trips to the parks during the summer, and the love of raising her grandchildren. She was a woman who was dedicated to life and all of the surprises that came along; she was phenomenal.
