

Lovie Baker

November 17, 1917 - February 16, 2007

Lovie Woolard Baker, daughter of Sarah Woolard Spotman and stepdaughter of Frank Spotman, was born November 17, 1917 in Beauford County, North Carolina. She passed from her earthly life to her eternal resting place, Friday, February 16, 2007. Lovie was educated in the public schools of Little Washington, North Carolina. She received her religious education and training at Rock Springs Freewill Baptist Church continuing her walk with Christ at Mt. Calvary Freewill Baptist Church after moving to Greenville, North Carolina where she served faithfully on the Young People's Choir. "Babe," as she was known was the youngest of sixteen children. She was spoiled by her brothers and her oldest sister as they watched over her while their mother worked. She grew up to become their favorite "Aunt Babe" to her many nieces and nephews. In December 1937 Lovie married the late Henry (Jack) Baker. Together they raised their sons, Harvey L. and the late Larry J. Baker; and two foster sons, George and Kenneth Gaines. They also opened the doors to several other young boys that were looking for a home. Babe raised her boys in a loving Christian home. Seeing to their total education in school and in church. Making sure that they learned to know about Jesus for themselves. The family moved to Baltimore in the early 1940's They were hard-working people teaching their sons the value of hard work. They visited churches in east Baltimore. She joined Faith Baptist Church in 1946, faithfully working with the Pastor's Aid Committee, the Flower Circle and the Sick. She truly loved her church family making many life-long friends in her church as well as her neighborhood. She will truly be missed. Lovie loved to Bowl, winning several trophies always laughing and teasing those whom she had beat. She also loved dogs and tropical fish. And she loved to tease people. "Me Me," as some of her grandchildren called her had a beautiful singing voice; you only heard it when she meditated on the goodness of God or working around her home, setting her free from her terrible pain and suffering and for His love in accepting her soul to live with Him forever more. Left to cherish her memory: her son, Harvey; two daughters-in-law, Sylvia and Mae Baker; two foster sons and their wives, George and Ann Gaines and Kenneth and Emma Gaines all of Baltimore, Maryland; eleven grandchildren, numerous great- and great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews; three sisters-in-law, Ms. Katie Barrett, Ms. Ruth Baker and Ms. Penny Mae Woolard all of Greenville, North Carolina; and many devoted friends. We the family of Lovie Baker thank God for allowing her to be in our lives. We thank Him for His mercy in

Tribute Wall

“ Lovie Baker

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Lovie Baker

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Dear family and friends of Lovie, I am very sorry to hear about the death of your loved one. Death is never an easy thing to go through. The bible tells of a time when death will be a thing of the past. Rev 21:4##imported-begin##A.J##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family and friends of Lovie"s ! May you all have peace and rest of mind. Ms. Lovie was in her ninety something to remember. The bible say at Ps.90:10" In themselves the days are 70 years and if because of speacil mightest 80 years,Ms.lovie lived past that, something to talk about among the family. I had a great grand mother to live to be 102 years. I look forward to the time when our heavenly father and Jesus Christ bring back to life many that have die, that will be the greatest of all time. May all the marvelous things done by Ms. Lovie stay close to yoy all hearts. I send my condolences to you all. Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to Ms. Lovie Baker's family. The loss of one so near and dear to many is very painful, that is why the Bible calls death our enemy-1 Corinthians 15:26. But, please be encouraged by Jesus' own promise of a resurrection at John 5:28,29. This is a blessed prospect for all who mourn. It is my sincere hope this will comfort your hearts.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am so sorry to see you have lost such of kind and loving family member. Death is an enemy that God promises to do away with. And when He does, he promises at Revelation 21:3,4 that "death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Jehovah God does promise a 'resurrection of the righteous' right here on earth under peaceful conditions. (Psalm 37:10,11) At that time, I look forward to meeting Mrs. Baker.##imported-begin##S. Jackson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly tells us "there is going to be a resurrection." In the very near future Almighty God will restore our loved ones to life with the hope of no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (See Revelation 21:3-5, Matthew 5:5) May you receive much comfort and strength as you think about the many loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM