“ I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in the scriptures at John 5:28,29 which gives us the hope of a resurrection.

Ms. Howard - July 08, 2013 at 12:43 PM

“ I am very sorry to hear of your loss, please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort in family and friends at this difficult and trying time. The Bible also offers words of comfort and speaks of a time when death, pain and suffering will be no more at Revelation 21:4. Again, I pray this message brings you much comfort.

“ God is the God of all comfort "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ, the father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort" -2Corinthians 1:3 When we draw close to God he will draw close to us; one way to do this is through prayer - the value of prayer is not to be underestimated. The Bible says: "Throw your burden upon God himself, and he himself will sustain you." -Psalm 55:22 Prayer to God is not some sort of emotional crutch. It is real and ital. communication with "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation." -2Corinthians 1:3, 4
God's Word, the Bible, provides the greatest comfort of all. The apostle Paul said: "I have hope toward God ... that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." -Acts 24:15 The Bible-based hope of a resurrection can be the greatest comfort while grieving the loss of your loved one.
Please accept my deepest, sincerest condolences; my heart really, really goes out to you and to your family.

My sympathies are with you, Sincerely, BDavis, Bible Student
