

Luana Richardson

September 23, 1943 - February 25, 2021

Luana "Anna" Richardson was born to Fannie and Marshall Richardson, Sr. in Columbia, South Carolina on September 23, 1943. At an early age the Richardson's packed up and relocated to Baltimore, Maryland.

Anna attended Baltimore City Schools. In 1956, she gave birth to the love of her life, Horace Richardson. Anna and Horace would sing and harmonize together.

To know her was to love her. Anna loved the simple things in life. She enjoyed sitting up in bed playing solitaire and watching her favorite television shows, such as Perry Mason, Westerns and Soap Operas. She loved and enjoyed talking. A lot of her conversation would be about everyday life. At the Johnston Square Apartments she will be remembered by "the meeting group on the 6th floor.

Anna was a smart woman, you just couldn't tell her anything. She was going to do her research! Anna loved cooking different dishes and held a position as Cook with the Fox Governors' Club and Briarwood Inn. She also loved drinking tea, Pepsi soda or a cup of coffee and eating crabs. She was faithful in playing the lottery.

Preceding her in death are her parents, Fannie & Marshall, Brothers, Paul Richardson, Ed Richardson, and Marshall Richardson, Jr.; Her Sisters, Lottie

Mae McDuffie, Mamie Smith and Daisy Richardson.

Anna leaves to cherish her memory: her Son, Horace Richardson, Four grandchildren; Horace II, Davon, Phillip Lindsay and Hannah Richardson; two Sisters in -laws, Katie Richardson of Detroit Michigan and Vivian English of Baltimore, Maryland; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins; family and friends; and a very devoted sister-friend, Cheryl.
