

Lucettia Tyese Crowder

February 5, 1964 - March 30, 2007

LUCETTIA TYESE CROWDER, beloved daughter of the late John Van and Virginia Crowder, was born on February 5, 1964 in Baltimore, MD. She departed this life after a lengthy illness on March 30, 2007 at John Hopkins Hospital. Candy was the eldest sibling of four children. Candy received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She attended Coppin State College where she joined the ROTC. Candy accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at the age of twenty-five where she joined United Baptist Church. Candy was a "KIND LOVING SPIRIT." She always saw the best in everyone no matter what the situation; she always came with a bright smile. She loved to travel with her family to North and South Carolina. Candy and her mom would often visit their family in New York. She also enjoyed being a part of their family group "Five Foxes and A Hound." Candy loved having a good time!! Prior to her illness she was employed by the United States Postal Service, Knights Protective Services. She leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Virginia Crowder; beloved daughter, Sheonté L. Wynder; son, Deonté Roberts; and granddaughter, Ailani K. Lomax; sister, Renettia D. Johnson; two brothers, John L. and Michael J. Crowder of Baltimore, MD; dear friend and cousin, Loretta Parker-Briscoe; two goddaughters, Dominique Harkless and Marnice J. Briscoe; godmother, Ivenia (Vicky) Leonard; twelve aunts, nine uncles, eight nieces, four nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 says- "There is going to be a resurrection." First Corinthians 15:26 informs us that "our enemy" death will be "destroyed". Many will return to life on a paradise earth with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (See Isaiah 65:17, 2 Peter 3:13 and Psalm 37:11) May you receive much comfort from these promises and the Author of them Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Crowder's ! May I send my condolences to you all. I have lost loved ones in death too , it really hurts. The family circle will always be broken. The bible can help heal the pain with so many uplifting thoughts from our Heavenly father as our comfort as 2 Cor. 1:3 say. May knowing that others cares make each day a better one. My sincerely feeling are with you all, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
