

Lucille Brown

March 28, 1934 - April 12, 2010

LUCILLE L. BROWN, daughter of Samuel and Lottie Lee, was born on March 28, 1934 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the eldest of four children born this union. She spent most of her childhood in East Baltimore. Everyone in her neighborhood knew who she was. Lucille had such an adventurous spirit and a joy to be around. Growing up, she showed interest in the church. At a young age, she gave her life to Christ. She attended Fountain Baptist Church periodically. Lucille received her education from Baltimore City Public Schools. Shortly after high school, she met her first love, Ralph Broadway, Sr. (deceased). The two were married in 1953. From this union came their only child, Ralph Gregory Broadway, born August 10, 1954. In 1964, Lucille was employed for Western Electric. She worked for this company for almost forty years. While employed, she met several life-long friends, including her second husband, Fredrick Brown (deceased). The two were married and shared such a passion for life. They loved to dance, socialize and travel. The two always attended Western Electric's Balls together, they were the best dressed couple at the event. Lucille loved spending time with her family. She was devoted to her son. Lucille and her son had such a great relationship that only improved with years. She always talked about her son to everyone she befriended. The two share a bond that is unbreakable and that will last forever. Lucille was known for many things, but one that is undeniable was her love for shopping. She could be found at any mall shopping with her sisters. Her high heeled shoes kept her young and stylish. On April 12, 2010 the Lord called Lucille home. She leaves to mourn: her son, Ralph Gregory Broadway; two sisters, Alma Byrd and Hilda Carter; four grandchildren, Takia Niesha, Keisha, and Nicloe Broadway; two great-grandchildren, Karmen and Kaden Walton; the "Great" Aunt Cathleen; and a host of neice, nephews, cousins and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Lucille Brown

---

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my condolences. May you receive comfort from the ressurection hope at John 11:38-44. Jesus promised this to his friend Lazarus. Now we can have comfort knowing that this promise is real.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Lucille Brown. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). Johm5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM