

Lucille Edges

June 21, 1931 - February 29, 2012

LUCILLE HARPER EDGES, daughter of the late Roylee and Mamie Harper was born on June 21, 1931 in Grifton, North Carolina. On Wednesday, February, 29, 2012, the Angels called Lucille, saying it was time to come home, and let Jesus take away all her pain.

She accepted Jesus the Christ as her Lord and Savior at a early age and taught her children to love and trust God always. She was a member of the Mt. Olive Freewill Baptist Church, where she served on the Usher Board for many years. In continuing her walk with the Lord, she joined St. Philip's Lutheran Church where she remained a faithful member for many years, and attended regularly until her health began to fail.

She was married to the late Clifton Cox. From this union, they had four sons, Clifton J. Therman, Ronald and Norman. Later she married the late Eugene Edges.

She graduated from Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School, and then continued her education at Provident Hospital School of Nursing, where she earned her Degree as a Licensed Practical Nurse.

She was employed at Johns Hopkins Hospital, first as a Nurses Aide. Upon completion of Nursing School, she worked many years in the Pediatric ICU.

She was a devoted and caring nurse for over twenty years, and only stopped when her health began to fail. She loved working with children, and felt this was a ministry. She was also a very devoted mother, putting Christ first, and her children next.

She leaves to cherish her memory: four supportive sons, Clifton J. Cox (Bertha), Therman Cox, Ronald Cox and Norman Cox (Wanda); brother, Clifton Payton (Ophelia); sisters, Essie Mae Stancil of Robersonville, North Carolina and Jean Scott (Paul); fifteen grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren, four great-great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, friends, other relatives and special friends, Panseal Carmon, Delores Best and Herbert Newborn.
