

Lucille Harris

September 4, 1952 - July 6, 2013

Lucille Harris, daughter of the late Wesley E. and Annie L. Harris, was born on September 4, 1952 in Washington, D.C. She departed this life on July 6, 2013.

Lucille strived for higher education and encouraged others to do the same. While working full-time at Morgan State University, she pursued and received a Bachelor of Science Degree. She continued her education and obtained a Master's Degree from the University of Baltimore. She loved justice for all and decided to invest in three years of law school also.

She had a heart of gold that made her kind and generous without any hesitation. If anyone needed her help, she went out of her way to assist them. Lucille always met a person at the point of his or her need.

She cherished life and was always thankful for the blessings she received and was evermore grateful to share those blessings with others. She will be greatly missed.

Fond and loving memories of Lucille will be cherished by: her brother, Louis T. Carr of Williamston, North Carolina; her sisters, Emma Harris, Lorraine Johnson, Beulah Harris, Eula Harris and Selena Harris of Baltimore, Maryland; a sister-in-law, Olivia Carr; a brother-in-law, Melvin Johnson; aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, a goddaughter, India McIntosh; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Lucille Harris

“ Remembering Lucille Harris. . .

My heart is still heavy and deeply saddened over the loss of my dear friend, colleague & coach, Lucille Harris. I sought her advice on many issues of life. She was authentic, true, genuine and exemplified excellence. She lived her life on purpose and made an impact in the lives of so many people. Her strengths and virtues will always resonate with me. I will honor her memory by demonstrating the principles that guided her life daily.

- 1. Be the change you want to see.*
- 2. Give yourself fully.*
- 3. Understand and appreciate the needs of others.*
- 4. Reflect the values, perceptions, and experiences of your soul.*
- 5. Commit to investing in lifelong learning opportunities through all vehicles of education; classroom, library, reading, lecture presentations, podcasts, webinars, how-to-videos, committee service, seminars, workshops, conferences, events, retreats, evangelistic meetings and church, etc.*

I've last spoken with Lucille by phone during the middle of June; little did I know that would be the last time I would talk to her. None of us know the day or hour when our earthly days will be no more.

God Loves You. . . Get to know Jesus!

If you already know Jesus, invite a friend, family member or even a stranger to get to know Him. Tomorrow is not promised to any of us and neither is the remainder of today.

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” John 3:16 (KJV)

Jesus died not only to give us a happier life now, but also to give us eternal life.

“That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.” Romans 10:9 (KJV)

Accept Jesus Christ today as your personal Lord and Savior and experience a new life in Him.

To learn more about getting to know Jesus, visit <http://www.amazingfacts.org/bible-study/get-to-know-jesus.aspx>

In closing, I echo the words of Bishop TD Jakes, “May the Love of God, the peace of the Holy Spirit, the sweet communion of knowing that you are a child of the King keep you through this period in life when it might appear as if death is wrong but it’s alive. Love will last forever for God is Love.”

“ With Ms. Harris in the place, there was never a dull moment; from the weekly meetings at Helen Roberts Faculty Dining Hall (MSU) to our extended conversations on the phone, whenever something was going on, I could say, "let me call Lucille or wait until I tell Lucille!" I could always count on her to be there on the other end of the line waiting to hear what I had to say. To the family of Ms. Lucille Harris, I pray that God sends comfort to lesson your pain and each time you have a memory, please cry or laugh because not only does it help you to feel better but it helps you remember that you knew such a Beautiful soul; rest on Lucille, rest on!!!

“ Light a Candle

*I will light a candle for you.
To shatter all the darkness and bless the times we knew.
Like a beacon in the night
The flame will burn bright and guide us on our way.
Oh, today I light a candle for you.*

*The seasons come and go, and I'm weary from the change.
I must keep moving on, it's not the same.*

*I will light a candle for you.
To shatter all the darkness and bless the times we knew.
Like a beacon in the night
The flame will burn bright and guide us on our way.
Oh, today I light a candle for you.*

I remember the friendship that was once shared.

“ I extend my deepest condolences to the family of Lucille Harris. May you find comfort from the God of all comfort, who helps us cope with our grief. It can be so hard to face each day without our loved one; but, the love and support of family and friends can help ease your pain and sorrow. The Bible promises at Revelation 21:4 - "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." I look forward to seeing Ms. Harris again in the coming paradise here on earth, under peaceful and righteous conditions.(Psalms 37:9,10,11,29)

“ Lucille will truly be missed by me, my child, my grandchildren and siblings. She was a beautiful person inside and out. A kind, selfless and giving person. Lucille was a prime example of what it means to be a woman of God.

We had a friendship than spanned over 30 years, she was my daughter's Godmother, I will miss her deeply. We would joke about the fact that she was from the Eastside and I lived on the Westside nevertheless; Lucille and her family always made me feel at home when I visited.

I know she is somewhere on the Eastside of heaven still working for the Lord. Love and Blessings to the Harris family !
