

Lucille Jones

August 24, 1947 - November 29, 2016

Lucille Jones was born on August 24, 1947, in Sumter, SC. After a lengthy battle with dementia brought on by a silent stroke. Lucille was called home to rest in the Father's arms on November 29, 2016 at the age of 69. She was the oldest child of McNeal and Lillie Mae Smith.

Lucille was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Upon graduating from Frederick Douglass High School, she married her high school sweetheart Anthony Jones, Sr. Together they went on to attend Baltimore City Community College. Lucille was a longtime and dedicated member of James Tabernacle Apostolic Holiness Church where she served on the senior usher board for several years. She felt it was an honor to be a doorkeeper in the kingdom of the Lord.

Being a good mother was one of Lucille's biggest passions next to sewing. She taught all four of her kids to sew as they were her helpers. Lucille was the go-to person for anything from wedding gowns to designing and upholstering the interior of tour buses. For many years, she worked as a professional seamstress for Joseph A. Bank's Men's Clothiers.

Lucille was truly a loving woman who would always lead you in the right direction. She cherished her neighbors and friends as if they were family. She was the glue that kept us together. She adored her grand and great-grandchildren.

They all knew they could go to her for anything.

Lucille leaves to mourn; four children, Deborah, Andrea, Anthony, and Kimberly; also, daughter-in-law, Paulette, and son-in-law Simeon; her grandchildren, Allen, DuWayne, Miles, Johnathan, Nathaniel, Marquel, Anetra, Taylor, Simone, Joshah, Courtney, Cameron, Tiffany, Siarra, Ariana, and sixteen great-grandchildren. Waiting for her in heaven; Her husband Anthony Jones, Sr., four siblings, and mom, and dad. She also leaves to mourn, three sisters, Diane, Elizabeth, and Lillian; seven brothers, Rick, Arthur, Robert, David, Steven, Linwood, McNeal and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.
