

Lucille McNeil

May 20, 1920 - April 3, 2011

LUCILLE MCNEIL, was born to the late Tom and Estelle Hatcher on May 20, 1920 in Wilson, North Carolina. She was educated in the Battlesburg, North Carolina Public School System.

In 1942 Lucille relocated to Baltimore, Maryland where she met and married the love of her life, the late James T. McNeil. Together they raised four children, the late James “Jameboy” Coley, Daisy Coley Leggett, the late Lemoyan “Peter Rabbit” Coley and Stanley McNeil. She departed this life on April 3, 2011 following a brief illness after a stroke.

Lucille was a Godly woman who loved the Lord. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and homemaker who dearly loved her family. Everyone who knew her loved her. She was a true friend and was always there to support her family and friends. She loved cooking, horse-racing, dancing and just being around her family. She had a very special relationship with her daughter Daisy (they were more like sisters and a very close relationship with her eldest granddaughter Lucender (Cindy) who was her devoted caregiver until she departed this life. There are two other people who had a special relationship with Lucille, her great-grandson Montreal Monakey, Sr. and Martin (Sammy) Whitney, who provided care to Lucille in Lucender’s absence without any hesitation.

Lucille was preceded in death by her husband, two sons and a grandson, Namon Leggett (Junebug).

She leaves to cherish her memory: a loving daughter, Daisy Coley Leggett; and a devoted son, Stanley McNeil (C. Dianne); three grandchildren, Lucender (Cindy) Leggett and Shannon McNeil; a host of great-grandchildren, nephews, nieces, cousins, and other relatives and friends.
