

Lucille Washington

August 12, 1944 - November 15, 2018

LUCILLE WASHINGTON, the daughter of the late Rosa Lee Goodley and Lenison Goodley, was born on August 12, 1944 in St. Matthews, South Carolina. She transitioned to be with the Lord on November 15, 2018 after years of barring illnesses.

She was always very passionate about her education, she skipped the first grade and was always at the top of her class. She graduated from St. John's High School located in Cameron, South Carolina in 1961 at the age of 17. Lucille got married July 7, 1968, and from that union came two sons.

She moved to Baltimore in 1968 and joined Allen AME Church where she was a very dedicated member. She served in many capacities at Allen as an usher, choir member and Stewardess. She truly enjoyed serving in the house of the Lord. She worked at McCormick and Co. for 27 years before retiring in 2005.

She leaves to mourn: two sons, Gerald Washington and Gerard A. Washington; daughter-in-law, Angela Washington, three sisters, Catherine Welfare, Geneva Dugan, and Daisy Mitchell; brother-in-law, Pastor Roosevelt Mitchell; six granddaughters, Shyra Bias, Angel Washington, Ja'Ceyha' Smith, Tia' Ailes, Grace Webster and Alyssa Webster; along with a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Lucille had an extremely powerful personality and she never hesitated to speak her mind, she was able to drive and inspire many. She was a very powerful woman of God and her hardworking and motivating spirit will truly be missed.

Pre-deceased Siblings: Mary Footman, Mattie-lou Mitchell, Anniebelle Parks, Julius Goodley, and Lenison Goodley, Jr.
