

Lucille Youngblood

October 14, 1941 - September 3, 2004

The remembrance of you will be like the hallowed after glow of a beautiful sunset. You have not met the end, but a new beginning. Those of us who loved you know for sure that you are a wonderful addition who's spiritual destiny was long ago sealed in the loving covenant with the Father above. Lucille Youngblood was the beloved daughter of Rebecca Hargrove and the late Cleveland Hargrove. She was born October 14, 1941 in Norfolk, Virginia. She departed her life on September 3, 2004 in Baltimore, Maryland after a lengthy illness. She received her education at South Hampton High school in Virginia. At the age of twelve, she attended church with her mother and grandmother at which time she was baptized and joined Camels Baptist Church. She first married the late Edward Santiful and out of this union one child was born, Kenneth Santiful. She later married Robert Youngblood and out of this union one child were born, Robin Youngblood. Lucille made friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was a kind-hearted, sweet devoted family person whom loved spending time with them. She leaves to mourn and cherish her memory: her husband, Robert Youngblood; mother, Rebecca Hargrove; son, Kenneth Santiful; daughter, Robin McCoy; grandson, Kenneth Santiful Jr.; two sisters, Helen Clark and Lyden Sharpe; mother-in-law, Mattie Faulkner, eight, sisters-in-law, two step daughters, Regina and Leithia Youngblood, nieces, nephews, and a host of family and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. I am only 12 years old, but I can remember the sadness I had when I lost my best friend. If you draw closer to the Almighty God Jehovah by reading the bible and praying to him he can help you to cope with your loss. Revelation 21:4 says....And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore the former things have past away. So you see in the very near future all these things will be put to an end. I hope this scripture will comfort you the way it has comforted me.##imported-begin##Bria Norton##imported-end##

“ To the family: It is with great sympathy that I extend my thoughts on the passing of your loved one. Please find strength in the words of John 5: 28,29 which speaks of a future resurrection of those who have passed away. May these words strengthen and comfort you.##imported-begin##Freda Allston##imported-end##

“ To the Family: Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible calls death an enemy.(Please read 1 Corinthians chapter 15 verse 26) But there is hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. This is a promise from God. Please note Daniel 12:2- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." It is my hope that this message gives you comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolence at the passing of Mrs. Youngblood. As the days, months and years pass by please draw comfort from the scriptures. At James 4:8 it tells us to draw close to God and he will draw close to us. Drawing close to him will give you the comfort you need to help you through your difficult time.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends of Lucille Youngblood, Losing a loved one is such a difficult trial to undergo. The Bible foretells of a time when there will be no death or sickness at Revelation 21:4, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Living in this sort of environment will be a comfort and great relief.##imported-begin##Dene Wise##imported-end##
