(lol); i remember the sleep-overs; i had the privilege of spending my early years as a child with you; as a child i remember the sparkly gold necklaces she always wore; i remember her laughing with my mom....Aunt Cinda will be missed; I am truely looking forward to seeing her again...(John 5:28, 29; Rev. 21:4)....I love you*

I remember those moments, lol, I don't think I would have ever made it off the porch if it weren't for Aunt Cinda. My mother would cringe whenever her sister would suggest me walking to the corner store alone and Aunt Cinda would say "Ah Velma, she'll be alright." She would even let me take little Kim, thank you Aunt Cinda for all you've done, I'll miss you as I miss my mother.

“ Dear Aunt Cinda, You were, without a doubt, the most awesome person on the planet. You loved without prejudice or judgment; you loved all as they were. There will never be anyone to replace you and I can't imagine meeting anyone else like you. I will now make it my life's mission to be more like you everyday. I love you more than words could ever express and I will miss you more than anyone will ever know. I was proud to be your daughter. You raised me well.
