

Lucy Cameron

May 26, 1930 - January 26, 2006

LUCY CAMERON, daughter of Katie and James Butler, was born on May 26, 1930 in Greenwood, South Carolina. She came to Baltimore at an early age where she lived the rest of her life. Lucy received her education at Booker T. and Carver Vocational High School where she majored in Business. She then proceeded to further her education in bookkeeping. She then met and married Coy Cameron and out of this union, they had four sons. Lucy loved to go the Atlantic City; that was her favorite pastime. Lucy passed due to a sudden illness. She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Coy; four sons, Coy, Warren, Anthony and Eugene; her granddaughter, Shawntae; great-grandson, Tavon, whom she loved to death; goddaughter, Sandy; her sisters, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and lost of admirers. She will truly be missed!

“ I wish to express my deepest sympathy to the Cameron family. No doubt Ms. Lucy lived a good life full of love and support from her family. There is a wonderful hope that God's inspired word the bible holds out. One such scripture of comfort is found at Job 14:14 "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, Until my relief comes." How comforting these words are.##imported-begin##K.D. Smith##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mrs. Lucy Cameron: I would like to express how sorry I am for your loss. To lose some one we care deeply about brings great pain and sorrow and we long to have them continue with. Death is something we can never get use to but the bible does bring lasting comfort. At 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 it tells us God is the father of tender mercies and he will comfort us in our tribulation. The Bible book of Malachi 3:16 speaks of a book of remembrance Jehovah God has and he will not forget those who fall a sleep in death isn't that beautiful? Jesus Christ also speaks of a time when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out to a resurrection of life so the bible does speak of a time when we will see our love ones right here on earth and this is a promise Jehovah God and Jesus Christ will keep. Please now that your family is in my prays. My Deepest Sympathy Shirel Halstead.##imported-begin##Shirel Halstead##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Ms' Lucy Cameron. Remember when Lazarus, the friend of Jesus had died. He had been dead for four days. The bringing back to life his friend was no impossible task for Jesus. John 11:11-44. Just as he did so in the past, so shall he do for us in the future, that of raising our loved ones back from the graves. Jesus has a desire to do so for at John 5:28,29 he states "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is comming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." May you all have peace and comfort from Jehovah's word of truth.###imported-begin###A. James###imported-end##

“ To The Family: I am sorry for your great loss. I send the family my condolences. But the Bible offers a hope no man can extend. John 5:28,29 it talks about a time when our dead loved ones will be resurrected. Then, as Rev. 21:3,4 mentions, there will be a time on the earth without death, sickness, or pain. May you be comforted by these Scriptures.###imported-begin###F. Adams###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.###imported-begin###Carter###imported-end##

“ PLEASE ACCEPT MY DEEPEST SYMPATHY. JEHOVAH GOD PROVIDES COMFORT AND HOPE IN HIS WORD THE BIBLE. HE TELLS US AT REVELATION 21:4, THAT HE WILL WIPE OUT EVERY TEAR FROM OUR EYES AND DEATH WILL BE NO MORE. NEITHER WILL THERE BE MOURNING NOR OUTCRY OR PAIN. HE SAYS THAT THESE TERRIBLE THINGS WILL PASS AWAY.##imported-begin##BARBARA GRAY##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family, please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. Please read and find comfort in Psalm 34:18, John 5:28,29 and Rev. 21:3,4. God promises to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these scriptures bring you strength and encouragement during your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
