

Lucy Vines Johnson

October 28, 1942 - October 28, 2012

Lucy Vines Johnson departed this life October 28, 2012 in Richmond, Virginia. She was born on October 28, 1942 in Edgecombe County, North Carolina to the late Lillian Willoughby Vines and June Emphraim Vines. She was preceded in death by her grandson Jahmai Bervine (Buddie). She attended public schools in Edgecombe County, North Carolina and attended Armstrong High School in Richmond, Virginia. She was employed with Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA), Richmond Urban League and Richmond Redevelopment and Housing Authority for 27 Years. She was a licensed professional Bail Bondsman with Zimmerman's Bonding from 1983 (until health declined).

She dedicated her life to Christ. She enjoyed listening to "I've Been in the Storm too long" which always encouraged her to stay on the battlefield fighting for the Lord.

She leaves to cherish her memory two daughters, Markeita and Tonya Johnson; three sons, Marvin Vines, Decta Vines and Tobias Johnson; Six grandchildred: Shaahida Lewis, Ameera Vines, James Johnson, Siddeeqa Johnson and Taylor Vines, one great granddaughter: Bryia Grady; two sisters, Mary Suggs (Joe), and Shirley Nesmith; four sister-in-law: Mary Vines (Virginia Beach, VA), Veronica Vines (Richmond, VA), Mary Vines (Greenville, NC) and Maggie Vines (Rocky Mount, NC). Three God daughters: Tammi

Thomas, Marcia Baker, and Torson Brown. Devoted friends Grace Zimmerman and Wayne Schneider; and a host of other relative and friends.

“ My Aunt Lucy, was not only my aunt and godmother...she was my heart. I miss her so much...it feels like someone as ripped my heart out way too soon. My life will not be the same without her here. Everything we go through is God's plan..beyond our control, but I thank him for putting my Aunt Lucy in my life. I Love You and Miss You!!!

Dear Tammi,

Please accept my sincerest condolences for your loss. Seems no matter how much we prepare, we are never fully prepared for the death of our loved ones. But know this, God is Love (1 John 4:8) He would never leave us to fend for ourselves. He has provided a loving arrangement for us to cope with the death of our loved ones. It can be found at Acts 24:15: "an I have hope toward God,... there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. Jesus Christ provided a foregleam of this when he resurrected is friend Lazarus. (John 11:42-44) Please review these scriptures in your Bible and may Jehovah be with you during this difficult time (Psalms 83:18)
