

Lucy Little

December 18, 1931 - October 17, 2013

LUCY ORDESSA LITTLE, daughter of the late John and Ella Harris, was born on December 18, 1931 in Baltimore, Maryland. She joined her heavenly Father on October 17, 2013.

Lucy loved to sing and dance, particularly with her late siblings Doris, John (Dick) and Clarence. She shared her beautiful voice with several school choirs, plus shined academically, prior to graduating from Frederick Douglass High School in Baltimore. After attending one undergraduate semester at Morgan State University, Lucy began work with the federal government. She retired as a supervisor with the Social Security Administration in Woodlawn, where she also sang with the SSA choir.

She was married to Fletcher Little — her favorite dance partner — for over fifty-two years. From this union came a daughter and son, Kimberly and Kelly. Dess, the nickname she was called by many of her family and friends, loved: to laugh, to follow and advocate progressive politics, to read mystery novels, to travel, to watch action-adventure and Jane Austen movies, to eat crabs during the summer and lobster and crab cakes on special occasions, and to collect bells and African-American memorabilia. She shared her love and kindness with her large extended family and many friends, including new friends she made right up to the time she left this life.

She leaves here to celebrate her existence: her husband, Fletcher; her children, Kelly, Kimberly and Clarice Brown; her son-in-law, John Brown; her grandson, Tshombe Herbert; her sister-in-law, Elaine Harris; her nephews and nieces, Larry Harris, Catherine Blackwell, Michael Harris and Allyson Owens; sisters-in-law, Drucilla Pittman, Martha Milburn, Charlotte Cochrane, Hattie Mae Watties, Dorothy Brown, Corrine Valentine, Gloria Smith and Minnie Little; brothers-in-law, Curtland Little, Eugene Cochrane, Harry Brown, Robert Valentine and James Smith; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, classmates and other relatives and friends.

Lucy was the sweetest, kindest, most loving person we've ever known. Her love will live forever.

“ To the family of Lucy Little:

Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.

To the Little Family. So sorry to hear of your loss. But please know that the Bible promises you will see your loved one again. That promise is at John 25:28-29. In the meantime, cherish all the wonderful memories you have. May God give you the endurance and peace to get through this difficult time.
