

Lueanna Hawkins

April 11, 1965 - October 25, 2020

Lueanna Hawkins, daughter of Nettie Hawkins and the late Otis Hawkins was born on April 11, 1965 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life suddenly on October 25, 2020.

“Ann” or “Black Sue” as she was affectionately called received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. For many years, Ann worked as Home Health care Aide and was later employed as a Housekeeper at the Day's Inn Motel.

Ann, was known for her sarcasm, quick quick wit and smart mouth. She loved being around family and whenever there was a family gathering, she would show up and show out becoming the “The Life Of the Party”. If she wasn't dancing , she was being a comedian, she could make anyone laugh and I mean laugh so hard you would literally have tears falling from your eyes.

She had a humorous personality and made friends where ever she went. She will truly be missed.

Ann leaves to mourn, her mother, Nettie Hawkins; one daughter, Timmesha Jones; four sons, Joseph Fenwick, Christopher (Tykiara) Johnson, Ryan Morgan and Damani Green: two granddaughters, Jayda Fenwick and Harley Roy: one grandson, Camon'ya Johnson; five sisters, Yvonne Peace, Lilly

(Daniel) Bush, Vermelle Smith, Helena Smith and Yolanda Hawkins, one brother, Roy Hendrix; two aunts Joann Bull and Shirley (Clay) Kimbal; one uncle, Willie Bull; a special and dear friend, James Green; and a hosts of nieces and nephews that she loved dearly.

She was preceded in death by her father, Otis Hawkins; four sisters, Cartraina Hendrix, Bazzelle Smith Annette Mason and Najla Rasool; four brothers, Landa Hawkins, Johnny Hendrix, Kenneth Smith and Willie Smith; one granddaughter, Caziyah Johnson; two nephews, Sean Kitwell, Jerome Smith, Jr. Taion Woods and Antwain Woods, Jr. and one great niece, Carren Johnson.
